Capt. Francis Asberry Vaughan. The lives of our prominent men should be written for the sake of the lessons, that men everywhere may place themselves in contact with facts and affairs, and build themselves up and into a life of excellence, not in any sphere but in their own rightful place, where they may keep and augment their individuality. To record in some respects the details of such a life is purposed in the following history: Capt. Francis A. Vaughan, who is now one of the most prominent citizens of Sequin, Texas, is a native of the State of Tennessee, from which have come so many of this country's prominent men. He was born in the year 1831, and was thirteenth in order of birth of fourteen children born to George and Catherine (Roberts) Vaughan, natives respectively of South Carolina and Virginia. The paternal grandfather, James Vaughan, was a native of South Carolina, and of Welsh origin. He served in the Revolutionary War. The maternal grandfather was a native of Pennsylvania, and came of old colonial stock. George Vaughan remained in his native State until grown, and then moved with his father to Tennessee. He was married to Miss Roberts in 1808, and his family was born in Tennessee. In 1833 he moved to Lowndes County, Miss., where he was engaged in farming. In 1840 he, with others, formed the Columbus Tombigbee Transportation Banking Company, with headquarters at Columbus, and was elected President. In connection with this was a large mercantile business. He held offices in both Tennessee and Mississippi. In 1853 he came to Texas and located on the San Marcos River, in Caldwell County, near Prairie Lea, where he died soon after his arrival. The mother passed away in 1870. Francis A. Vaughan was educated in good schools in Mississippi, and was in his twenty-third year when he came to Texas with his parents. After the death of his father he took charge of the estate and conducted the farm until the war. In 1855 he was married to Miss Adeline McKenzie. Her father, Joseph M. McKenzie, came to Texas in 1840 and located at Linnville, on Matagorda Bay. He had just completed a fine home when the place was besieged and burned by the Indians. The family escaped by taking a boat and going on the bay. After a few years the family moved to Gonzales County, where the father died. To Capt. and Mrs. Vaughan were born nine children: Frances Adeline, wife of Thomas D. Terrell; Sam Houston, died when eight years old, George Wesley and Thomas Milton (twins); Dora Isabel, Nettie Louise, wife of William T. Pickers; Lizzie Ella, Guy Edgar, and Daniel Glenn. In 1862 he entered the United States Army as Lieutenant of Company A., First Texas Cavalry, and served in the Department of the Gulf. In 1864 he became Captain of Company F, same regiment, and was at Baton Rouge at the close of the war. He was ordered to Texas and mustered out at San Antonio in November, 1865. The same year he was appointed Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue for the Third Division of the Third District of Texas, including Bexar, Guadalupe and Caldwell counties, serving four years. He was a member of the constitutional convention under which the State of Texas was readmitted to the Union, and on the adoption of the constitution he was elected District and County Clerk of Guadalupe County, holding this position four years. In 1875 he engaged in merchandising in Sequin, continued this until 1880, and was then appointed Supervisor of Census for the Sixth District of Texas, doing the work to the great satisfaction of Gen. Walker, who was the Census Superintendent. In 1882 he was appointed Collector of Customs for the District of Saluria, Texas, with headquarters at Indianola, and held that position until 1885. In 1890 he was again appointed to the same office, with headquarters now removed to Eagle Pass, and held that office until the spring of 1894, greatly increasing the receipts of the office. In 1868 he bought his handsome residence in Sequin, with thirty acres of land, and an excellent farm of 150 acres on the Guadalupe River. He lost his wife in 1880, and two years later married Miss Carrie Woolfley, a native of New Orleans. He lost two brothers with

Col. Fannin's army, who were taken prisoners and massacred at Goliad, Texas, in 1836. Capt. Vaughan is a member of the Masonic order. He is

EDMUND RANDOLPH READ

Submitted by James Horton Davis

Back during the years of 1835-36 there took place in Texas a struggle that in a few years led to one of our major conflicts for territorial rights. It was at this time that the Texas Rebellion took place.

These two years were filled with repeated atrocities on the part of the Mexican army under Santa Anna. The particular one of these outrages that deals with our subject was the massacre of Goliad. This incident was one of the worst charges against the military ethics of Santa Anna.

A few days before March 27, 1836, a small group of men, under the leadership of Captain Fannin, were made, under false pretenses, to surrender to the Mexican General Urrea. This General promised Fannin the release of his soldiers and the privilege to return to their homes. They were instead taken to a church in the town of Goliad and imprisoned there. On Palm Sunday, March 27, 1836, as the people of the town were going to early Mass, the imprisoned soldiers were taken from the church, having their full equipment with them, and made to walk a short distance outside the town. At this point they were told to kneel down. One of the Americans, from this order, guessed the intentions of the Mexicans, so he shouted, "They are going to kill us!" At this the guards fired into the group. During the confusion that followed some of the Americans escaped. Among these few was Edmund Read.

Due to the inaccuracy of early records of the wars, the name of Edmund Read is not given on the list of Fannin's men who escaped. A few years ago one of the Nashville papers printed an account of another soldier who escaped. It was only this year that one of the later Reads revealed the facts concerning Edmund Read.

Our subject was the great-grandson of Clement Read, important in the early history of the Virginia colony. He was the son of John Nash Read, the progenitor of the Tennessee branch of the Reads. This John Nash Read settled in Rutherford County and established his estate. His father ran away from home when only a boy, from other engagements. He ran away and joined the army.

Family tradition of soldiers were fired at. He remained the home of a Mexican way a few days later seemed an eternity. Friends in Nashville he drove his carriage.

Due to the effects of the war. It is fitting to those who laid down their lives.

Title of Possession:

Citizen George W. Smyth, Commissioner of the Supreme Government of the State of Coahuila and Texas for giving possession and issuing land titles to the inhabitants of this Frontier:

Whereas, Citizen George Vaughan is one of those comprised in Article 32 of the Colonization Law of March 26, 1834, and the afore-mentioned G. Vaughan having fully proved by a certificate from competent authority, which he presented to me, that he is a native of this country, that he is married, with a family, and finding in him all the requisites of the laws of the State as well as those of the Federation, in conformity therewith and the instructions which govern me, in the name of the State, I concede to, confer upon, and put the said George Vaughan in real and personal possession of one league and labor of land situated in the proximity of the Red River of Nachitoches and on the waters of the Rio Azuferoso (Sulphur Fork), adjoining the survey of John Dry, the boundaries of which are delineated on the plat and in the field notes returned by the Surveyor, Citizen David Brown, as is seen in this file of documents. Of the afore-said tract six labors belong to the class of arableland and the remainder to that of pasture land, according to which he must pay the State the amount thirty-nine pesos, the manner of acknowledgement being indicated by Article 22 of the Colonization Law of March 24, 1825. The interested party has delivered said amount, and I acknowledge having received it from him at the time of delivering to him the testimonio of this title, according to my instructions to that effect; he being notified that within one year he is to construct fixed and permanent landmarks at each corner of the tract, that he is to settle and cultivate it, and that he shall never convey it in mortmain.

Therefore, exercising the authority vested in me by the law, my commission, and consequent instructions, I issue the present title and order the testimonio taken from it and delivered to the interested party so that he may possess and enjoy the land, he, his heirs and successors, or whoever from him or from them shall have cause or right, this being the will of the State, which I sign with two of my attendant witnesses according to

Dear Brother Ralph:-

I have been looking for a letter from you for some time but as I don't get it will write again. I hope you folks are all well. We often think of you and wish we could see you.

How is Maggie? Is she getting rested up. I hope Mr. Harling keeps well. So many around here are having the gripper. Every one seems to have it hard where they get it. We have been, and still are having strange weather for this time of the year. This is the 4th rainy day this month and showers between times. The coldest we have had was about 38 below zero. And the warmest about 44 above. So you see we are having variety any way.

everything is all covered with ice $\frac{1}{2}$  in thick at least. Evening the ice was  $\frac{3}{4}$  in or more before it stopped raining. It stopped at noon. This P. M. John and I took the most of the ice off from the small fruit trees but of course we could do nothing for the big trees. I fear the ones are damaged by the storm as the wind is blowing tonight.

If you were up here you could go out hunting.

We went across the house, I see towards Ponds from the east yesterday morning. Walter saw it when he was going to work. When he was coming back from work he saw one on E. G. Harding's place.
The day before Andrew Johnson shot
a timber dove in his field.
Today I saw a dove near one on the L. Bentner place. And yesterday morning Heithmann saw one south of their house towards Martin's woods.

quite a few have been killed around ~~here this winter.~~

Mr. San Toa died last Sunday and was buried yesterday.

Ever so many are sick with the grippe. Had to tell you that Owesley Pond is not well at all.
He has bright disease and is just able to crawl around and do his chores. Had to buy his wood because he was not able to cut it.

Has to lie down a good deal day time. His mother keeps me posted. Yesterday she felt quite cheered up as his Specialist Dr.
had said there was no reason why he could not be cured.
He is doctoring with a Dr.
in Ohio.

It seems some colder tonight.
Mr. Meyer's told John the other day that Mr. Marling would have to get an other renter this spring. The last we heard from Mother she said she was feeling real well again. Guess she has forgotten me since she got to George's as she has not written to me since she got there. She wrote to John last week. George let us know that she got there O.K. Fred had to come to Minneapolis on business so he brought her with him. Mary is thinking of letting Ruth come to us to attend high school. So if you happen to be coming up this way before next Sept. stop and bring her along with you. Her teacher said she would be ready to enter high school next year. I think she has done fine missing so much schooling as she has done. It does not seem possible that she is 13 yrs old. How fast the years are slipping by. We will soon be the old folks, and then pass on to make room for others.

What kind of weather have you had down there this winter.

How is Etta and her family.
I suppose you received a picture of Mary's family.

Your name sake don't look much like you yet but perhaps he will later. He is a dear little fellow. But starts life somewhat afflicted. The doctor think he will out grow his trouble tho. He has a double rupture and has to wear a truss. It don't seem to worry him tho. Arville, Mary's next to the youngest has the same affliction. They had to get a truss

I am sending your things

They are poorly served in the nature of excavating.

Had a letter from <sup>Dr.</sup> Wallace to-day he told me to keep on with the medicine but he wanted to see me in the course of the next month or two.

Pete is trying to help me write to you. He wants to put his paw on the pen too.

You forgot your fountain pen didn't you. That was too bad. This last letter came through a great deal sooner than the other one. You should have my letter to-day and it is two or three letters in one you'll be tired before you are through with it.

Well, darling, I'll probably add a line or two in the morning. You know how I miss you but I'll tell you again and again I expect for fear you might forget.
This just isn't living at all for

Dear friend:

I have that many times I would like to hear from you and how you "like yourself" now a days &c.

We often speak of your visit here with Stanley and your "bikes" I would enjoy another such visit very much tho of course the trip need not necessarily be made on bikes. say Auto this time!

I had a letter from S— a few weeks ago and he spoke of you as now being a married man and living the place I have addressed you. Where did you find your wife? Where is your brother John?

And your sister Lillie? Tho I think now another sister lived with you at Lansing for a while. Was her name Mary too?

I was not so well acquainted with her as I was the rest of you.

It seems but a little while ago that we were playing music for dancing music-lovers in the old church. You, Mr Bacon, Ben Dunning and I, could turn the whitewash on the walls pale when we emptied ourselves into those old brass horns.

Prof. Stackman was here at the time you were out on your wheels. I have not heard from him since he was down the line here a few miles with another class just after he left here. Do you keep up your music yet?
I have not used my cornet for three years.
A neighbor boy keeps it hot tho. He is learn-to play in a band and is doing well.

S— says you are connected with U.S. Mail service. How long have you been there? I

Dear Brother Ralph:-

It was just as I thought about that picture or you would have sent us one. But I thought that would be the quickest way to find out for sure.

The boys are busy haying now days.

Well Ralph a couple of days have passed since I started this to you.

We had a big rain yesterday P.M. And a pour down about dark.

Hi:

I'm researching Dr. Milton Clay Vaughan who died in 1903 (not sure of the day or month). I believe that he may have also been the mayor of Ocean Springs in 1895-1896.

Would you happen to have any information on Dr. Vaughan, or can you tell me where I might begin my search?

I'm not just looking for his obit.....I'm looking for anything at all that I can find!

Thanks for your time,

The only information I have about your Catherine Roberts Vaughn is from a letter of Oct. 29, 1969 from Mrs. Wm. Harris, "I have recently heard from a woman whose ancestors lived very close to the other Roberts in Caldwell Co., Texas. She is trying to trace a Catherine Roberts born about 1790 in Virginia who married a George Vaughan and who had a son named Cornelius Vaughan. This Catherine Roberts was married in Roane County, Tenn."

I do not know who her father was. We know it was not (probably not) Jesse; not Nathan, not Daniel, probably not Isaac (he was born to late). That only leaves James. (Cornelious had 4 sons) If she was daughter of Jesse it was not mentioned in his will in ~~Green~~ Co. (Taylor Co.) Ky.

What makes you think it was James? James is my ancestor and he moved to Pike Co., Ky. by 1808, and I have no indication that he ever lived in Tenn. He had land in Russell Co., Va. and then Pike Co., Ky. Anything is possible, and he may have lived in eastern Tenn. prior to coming to Ky., but I have nothing to indicate that he did. I have nothing in my records to indicate that James had a daughter named Catherine. In fact, I doubt that he did because his children did not use that name on their children, and they were great at using the family names. I'm not saying it isn't possible, but as of now seems unlikely.

In any event, James did not marry Barbara Hart. His wife was named Nancy Ann "~~A~~nnie" don't know last name.

This info. also from Mrs. Harris
Bledsoe Co. was formed from Roane in 1807. Nathan Roberts was in Bledsoe Co. in 1807 (Land Entry Book, 4th Surveyors District—page 38 Nathan Roberts—part of Wm. Russell and others—640 acre grant. Dear Mrs. Holloman,

How are you getting along ? It has been so long since I heard from you. We are fairly well. In the 1969 edition of the "Old West" magazine, on page 6 there is a picture of Francis Asbury Vaughan and his son George Wesley. I thought you might like to get one.

Have you gotten any data on the Vaughans or Roberts, lately. I may have a clue to Catherine (Roberts) Vaughan family. A lady from Fort Worth, Mrs. William Horn's answered an "ad" of mine about the Roberts family. We can't find a connection so far. Mrs. Harris said Catherine's father could be James or Jesse Roberts. They are sons of Cornelius Roberts of Pittsylvania County, Virginia. The Roberts she is working on migrated from Virginia to , to Mississippi, and on to Caldwell County, Texas, about the same as Catherine did. Her and Daniel Roberts born 1777 son of Cornelius Roberts moved into Winston County, (Miss) very close to the Noxubee County line about 1835. He died in Winston County in 1846-47. Do you know anything about Elizabeth Peters and these Roberts?

I haven't been able to find the parents of my Thomas Vaughn who resided in British & Spanish West Florida in the late 1700s and very early 1800s. His daughter, Susana (Susan) married Zadock Brashears whose father was Jesse Brashears. Both Jesse and Zadock were born in Maryland. Jesse moved into Georgia, then to Pensacola and died in the late 1700s. The Brashears line was quite prominent in Maryland and has been very prolific. There are, of course, Vaughn families every where. So - is there any connection? I wish I knew. Some day, maybe, we will know. Thanks for your inquiry.

Dear Brother Ralph:-

Just a short letter tonight to wish you a happy birthday and many of them. Hope this will be the best and happiest year of your life.

We got your letter and were glad to hear from you. We did not expect or think of such a thing as your doing some thing special for our boy because we named him after you.

Ralph Vaughan James.

How does it sound?

PASCAGOULA LIBRARY

I did it because of the good times we used to have when they put you and I at the same end of the table so the rest could be at peace. and you used to swipe the apple I had peeled or anything else that took your fancy.

Of course I was always good.

It seems very nice to have Mother and Lillie with us. Lillie is going to help me do a little sewing for Ralph. He hasn't anything but Kimonde as yet.

I am feeling pretty good. Can do quite a bit of work now. I baked bread today besides helping with the house work.

Will is taking care of the baby and says to tell you he will write later.

He said something about asking something about what terms you would sell that land on. He can write to you about it.

Your namesake kicked over the attention he was receiving. I have not your letter here. But one of the subjects has been mentioned in the preceding paragraph. Perhaps that will be about the only way to save money. If I had my school debts all cleared up I would not care so much. But I have been thinking about it for nigh on to a year. you might tell me what you can do and I will see what I can do. Bishop Duayle says that every preacher should have five acres of land. But most not all have the Bishop's income. Possibly when we have such howling storms as swept across the state this week it would be sort of cheering to think there was a warm place waiting if we could raise the price of a ticket. We had a big 3 day storm - began with snow on Saturday, rain on Sunday, and the biggest snow storm of the season on Monday. yesterday was cloudy as was the day when the lazy cown would like to see his shadow. Then to-day it rained again and this makes traveling an interesting affair. The sidewalks are so slippery that one ought to take out a special accident policy before starting for the post office. What to-morrow will be is hard telling. Early in January I took a jaunt out into the country. The road was drifted full and so I walked and got wet, as quite often I was in the snow above my knees. But it was my second attempt at making that call and I was determined to put it thru. It augmented a ~~cough that was starting~~ and I had one of the strangest coughs I ever had. It is about gone and I am glad of it. We have not had the best of winters for the throat but I have not had much trouble.

Yes, we wish you had a Ralph of your own but you might prefer another name. He is quite an interesting fellow, I assure you, and seems to be an interested observer of things around here. It is nearly time to quit or the avalanche will bury you - at any rate you can spend a few spare minutes in reading the variety of things recorded in these three epistles. Maybe Donald will want to make it a quartet. Where will we be 40 years from now? We do not expect to be in position, then, at any rate. Nellie and Will.

went to her first talking about the first of the year and the first I was in my little that I from the first of the year. I was you and my dear mother we have heard from you for a long time
It seems a long time since we have heard from you for a long time
We had such a good time when the folks were home we wished you and Fred might have been with us also.

When we called doctor Christopherson again, this time he brought his brother down with him and they decided it was what Mary thought it acted like in the first place fever and ague. Then they doctored for that and soon they were alright. Beatrice & Helen were here while George was at Conference then George came Monday night & <sup>my</sup> ~~was~~ were here until Saturday morning. A week later Elsie Donald & baby Ralph came and were here 6 days.

Baby Charles was sick a week cutting teeth after the other boys got better.
For a week he did not get down to play some one had to care for him all the time

But they all seemed to be feeling quite well when they went home. Mary gained 14 lbs while here. Ruth has been in school ~~three~~ weeks now. She is in the 8th grade Wayne Jahr is her teacher. She likes her school real well. She is busy now doing problems in percentage.

I thought of you people many times while they were here but could not seem to get time to write. Mary started for home Thursday at midnight and Nellie Friday morning about 8:30. So the house seems rather empty with being so full.

The Oranges arrived in Bridgeport last Tuesday Feb. 17. They came through in good condition. The express on each crate was $2.15, not so bad. I have figured it would cost about five bucks for express. The grapefruit cost me 10 cts a piece, and the oranges about 60 cts per doz. The fruit is certainly great. We cannot secure any thing like around here at any price.

Many thanks to you for your trouble. Say the shippers did not say what was the value of

Dear Reb and All:

How are a f you folks? We have not heard anything from you all in a long long time. The children must be getting very large and grown up by this time.

I want to tell you John and I were married very quietly about a month ago. We could not announce it or put it in the paper because he had to be married to hold the job he has now, therefore, we did it very secretly. Both families knew it was going to happen or rather it had happened, but that was all. The people I worked or rather work for, because I am still working and intend to do so until I get canned, didn't like it so very much either, but I didn't care others had done the same and still had the chance to work so I did it to.

We have a room here in town now and will just have that until we both get even with every body then we expect to get a house of some sort.

You know I was transferred to Baton Rouge, Louisiana, and worked and lived there about a year, and just after we were married I was transferred back here again. That's the good breaks is it not?

Everyone here is fine and dandy cept for money, which seems to be the greatest worry of all living people. No I take that

Dear Brother Ralph & family:-

Well Ralph and other milestone is nearly past in life's journey. How swiftly the years seem to slip by don't they.

Well I wish I ~~could~~ wish you many happy returns of the day. And may this year be the best yet.

Am sorry that none of us could be with you for the winter but do not see how we could have helped it.

Mary seems to be having accidents quite often this winter. About a month or six weeks ago. She and Ruth were going to church when a couple of men met them with a well rigged trap and they turned them out of the road but the men did not turn out much and locked wheels ~~with~~ do struck me run, and broke young horses square off. Ruth landed on her back on the ground. Mary said she didn't know how she did land she got up so quick.

She told the men what she thought of them and they went back to town and got new wheels for them.
She said they were not hurt much.
Phem in her last letter she said she and Arthur were going to town where their buggy broke and then were both thrown out one wheel went over Arthur and if she had not held the axle in both wheels would have passed over her.
She did not think she was over the effects of her fall and did not know how badly she might be hurt. I hope not badly.
~~I fear they are having rather~~ hard times.

Well I wish you could see your little magnifico. He is a dear little fellow and he has lots of smiles for us already.
I tell Nellie if he has all the mischief you ~~are~~ and her com-fined she will have her hands.

looking after him.
~~and the plot and John~~ trees and the plot and John could only find the list.
I will send you a copy of it.
This means as I remember were to be set in the 2nd row on the south side. And I don't remember if there were to be one or three other trees between. I should just as soon have 2 or 3 or more extra pecan trees.
If I have forgotten some other things that would be nice to have you can put them. I remember we spoke of a banana tree and a live oak.
You can write and tell me
all about it when you get them all set out.
We have been having great weather this winter in 24 hrs

we had over 50 degrees difference in temperature. We have had two or three rain storms in the last week.

We have not heard from the boys for nearly two weeks.

Aunt Fanny is very low. I had a letter from Fanny Sat. And she said she could not speak so they could understand her. She has been so bad so long. And has suffered so. It will be a release to her when she goes. Poor Fanny has had a hard time. But she has been very good to her grandmother.

I was holding Ralph and he spit on my letter to you. Please excuse it.

I will close for this time.
Hope Mr. Harding is feeling better. Give my love to all the folks and keep a good share for yourself. Lovingly your sister Lillian Vaughn.

Sarah d. sometime after 1870 as she was still on the 1870, but not 1880, census. David Bunch also died, and Elizabeth remarried to my ancestor Robert James. Each having been married before, they had 7 children between them, but for some reason Robert's 4 did not come to live with them but went to relatives instead. The only child Robert and Elizabeth had together was my g-grandpa, Edgar Lee, erroneously called Edward L., on the 1880 census. Robert James died before 1880 and Elizabeth resumed the name 'Bunch' for some odd reason. Family tradition says that Elizabeth died shortly after 1880 and my Edgar Lee came to TX with 'step family, who raised him'. I cannot find him until 1910, after he is married and has served in the Sp. Amer War. His father, Robert, was a son of John and Nancy (I believe WEST) James, and had 14 siblings. Any input?? As I said before, I think 'A' Vaughn of Wayne Co MS was Alvin of Guilford Co NC who m. Sarah Nelson.

WHO WAS GRANDMA VAUGHAN ?

Compiled by Harry H. McDonald

28 October 1995

Over the past few months I have been clearing and trying to restore the Ferrill Cemetery, located in Escatawpa, Mississippi, wedge between the Bennett and Robinson Cemeteries. The oldest date of birth was that of Seletia Vaughan, who was born 11-14-1815 and died 8-19-1899. Her marker was adrift and her exact burial spot was determined from an recording made in 1961. There were no other Vaughan graves marked in the cemetery. I began to ask questions. Who was Seletia Vaughan ? Who is her family ? Else Martin, a genealogical librarian at Pascagoula, gave me my first clue. She had copied a editorial from the Democrat-Star written by Mark A. Dees on August 28, 1899 and appeared to be the editor of subject paper. Mark A. Dees was a lawyer, who lived in Moss Point, but had known Grandma Vaughan for most of his life. The editorial was as follows:

"Grandma" Vaughan is dead.

Having passed the half century mile post, I am classed among the old men of our county, yet do I remember over forty years ago, when my parents sent me, one sister and two brothers to board at J. T. Well's and attend a school taught by the "great and only J. J. Carroll". a country school teacher at Antioch Church, located in the very spot were Shannon's store now stands near Cumbest Bluff on the Pascagoula River.

The beautiful and hospitable home of the Widow Vaughan and her two sons and three daughters was then in the same house where our friend Will Howell now lives, which was and is about two miles south of the Antioch Church house in which we had our school. Among the good patrons of that school there were none who were as much loves or welcomed by us children as was Aunt Letia Vaughan. Her kind look and motherly voice were inspiring to us all, especially to us who were boarding and so far from our homes.

No experience of mine while there were as pleasant to me as to get a chance to go home with the Vaughan children and stay all night, and while I was very fond of the children, I well remember it was Aunt Letia's kind words and treatment of me that mostly caused me to desire to go there.

This was in 1860, and the school was finally broken up by the cruel civil war, and very soon Aunt Letia's two sons answered their country's call to arms and in a short while James, the youngest and healthiest of her sons, filled a soldier's grave. Aunt Letia, like many other ladies of our south land, managed very well during the long war. (Remainder of this paragraph could not be read).

Her daughters to all appeared healthy women and all bid fair to greatly outlive their mother. The oldest married my old friend William Smith of Escatawpa and was the mother of several children. Honorable Arthur H. Smith, now presently running for county treasurer, being one of them, but she died many years ago. The second daughter married the Rev. Mr. Calhoun, a most excellent Methodist minister who built more church houses than any preacher I ever knew. She became the mother of several children, but died at an early age.

The third daughter married our old friend Wm. Howell, who bought from the other heirs the old homestead and lives there now and this last was Aunt Letia's "baby", she continued to live there with them. Mrs. Howell became the mother of several children, but she also died at a young age. Aunt Letia Vaughan had long since become "Grandma" Vaughan and was so called by thousands of our people no wise kin to her. During the long sicknesses of her beloved daughters, Grandma Vaughan was ever beside their beds, relieving their pains, caring for her grandchildren and pointing her children's minds and hearts to that Master who has been her strength and support during all her life and while she ever lived a perfect life and urged her children to follow her, still she shared only in the merits of her Savior for her salvation, but worked for Him because she loved him. Grandma Vaughan spent much of her life caring for her motherless grandchildren and lived to see all but one of her children go before her to the "great beyond" and it can truly be said of her that 'she passed through the dark tunnel' yet from the first day I knew her to a few weeks ago when I last saw her, she never faltered in the devotion to her God, or in her kindness to mankind. She generally stayed north of the river, as her grandchildren were there, yet she was known and loved as Grandma Vaughan by all the people of Moss Point and in fact by all of east Jackson County and any of our ladies were glad to have Grandma Vaughan to come and stay with them for days. Grandma Vaughan has a mind as big and as strong as her heart and was a good manager of business.

When I arrived at home on Friday last, my sister said to me. "Mark, Grandma Vaughan is dead". I was shocked, but on reflection, I said "Not dead but sleepeth" for I know that like Paul of old, Grandma Vaughan could have truthfully said, "for me to depart and be with Christ in gain". I also know that at Christ's second coming he will bring Grandma Vaughan with him and she together with all of us who trust in Christ for our salvation will live and reign with Him on this Earth, and the "second death" will have no power over us. But we shall be priest of God and Christ, and shall live and reign with him. I am sorry that I was not at home in time, so that I could take my place in the sad procession and followed the remains of Grandma Vaughan to the silent city of the dead. While we glory in the fact that her pure spirit is now in Abraham's bosom, there to remain in comparative happiness until the last trump shall sound, when her body is resurrected at the second coming of Christ and made a spiritual body free from all sorrow and pain. God bless the memory of Grandma Vaughan. M. A. Dees

Now that I know what Selitia Vaughan was, it leaves a question, who was Celetia Vaughan? The 1850 census of Jackson County, Mississippi show Matthew J. and Celetia Vaughan with two sons and three daughters and Matthew's older brother, Henry Vaughan. The 1850 census indicated that she was born in Georgia, Matthew was born in South Carolina and the older Vaughan children born in Alabama. The 1850 Agricultural Census of Jackson County, Mississippi indicated that they were a farming family with 655 acres in the Three Rivers area with sixteen acres developed. I found Matthew J. Vaughan and family in Mobile County, Alabama in 1840, which consisted of Matthew, Seletia, his older brother and one male child under 5.

By chance, a distant relative of Seletia Ann Vaughan, looking for the grave of one of their direct ancestors revealed that Seletia Ann was a sister to their great great grandfather, James Denmark and buried all around her were daughters of this man. In the Denmark file I found Seletia Ann Denmark, born 11-26-1814, the daughter of James Denmark and Susannah Wise. James Denmark and Susannah Wise homesteaded on the Red Creek, near what is Wiggins, Stone County, Mississippi. Many of her brothers and sisters lived, married and died in old Jackson, Perry and Greene counties. This family has been researched, many records are on file at various libraries. It is thought that Seletia Ann Denmark and Matthew James Vaughan married in Greene County, Mississippi in ca 1838. Matthew James Vaughan was born in 1808 and died prior to 1860. She was listed as a widow in 1860. It is thought that he is buried in what is known as the old William Howell cemetery at Three Rivers.

What about her children? Andrew A. Vaughan, her oldest son, was born ca 1838 and died 1-31-1913, which agrees with the 1860 census of Jackson County, Mississippi. His tombstone, reads as follows; born 3-29-1853, died 1-31-1913. He married Mary Goff, born 11-10-1857 and died 1-31-1909. They are both buried in the Johnson Cemetery, Wade, Jackson County, Mississippi. They had the following children. Eugene, born ca 1870, Edna, born 1-24-1872, who married Wiley Coleman; Louise, born ca 1878; Wesley, born 9-12-1880; Emma, born ca 1883, Marvin C., born ca 1886; and Walter, born 4-18-1892.

Matthew James Vaughan, Jr. was born ca 1840 and died during the Civil War.

Mary Louise Vaughan, her oldest daughter, was born ca 1843 and died prior to 1880. She married William Hiddle Smith. He married second Virginia Dodge. Mary Louise had two sons and one daughter. Arthur Hiddle Smith, born ca 1864 and died 3-9-1909, William Hiddle Smith, Jr., born ca 1867; and Mary, born 1867. Mary married Christian B. Mork on 7-24-1894. Celetia Denmark Vaughan died in her home in Escatawpa, Jackson County, Mississippi. A vertical file at the Pascagoula Regional Library contains additional information on this family.

Laura Vaughan, Seletia Ann's second daughter was born 4-20-

1847 in Mississippi and died ca 1886 in Escatawpa, Mississippi. She married the Reverend C. W. Calhoun, born 10-25-1839 and died 4-1883. He was the son of John and Sarah McLeod Calhoun. It is thought that they are both buried in Zion Cemetery, Escatawpa, Jackson County, Mississippi. Laura had four daughters and two sons. Cammie Calhoun, born 12-27-1868; Olive Calhoun, born 7-16-1871; Sarah (Sallie) Calhoun, born 2-6-1873; Louella Calhoun, born 7-6-1876; Otis V. Calhoun, born 2-26-1879; John Rush Calhoun, born ca 1881 and died ca 1901. Reverend Calhoun served Methodist churches in Jackson and Hancock counties, Mississippi. He died while serving the Escatawpa Methodist Church. A vertical file at the Pascagoula Regional Library contains additional information on this family.

Jane Elizabeth Vaughan, Seletia Ann's youngest daughter, was born ca 1850 and was deceased by 1890. She married William Howell, born ca 1838. They are both buried in the William Howell Family Cemetery, Three Rivers, Jackson County, Mississippi in unmarked graves. This cemetery is on the old Vaughan homestead. Jane Elizabeth had at least four children. Earnest, born ca 1868; Ida, born 1870; James, born 1877; Willie, born 1885.

I hope that someone will pick up this history of a great lady and keep her memory alive.

By Dr. Emmett Jamison

Mr. Editor:

I am reproducing the following sketch of the civil war, and the leaving here of the Caledonia company, in command of their gallant Captain, M. M. Rowan, from Unity Church, Friday, Sept. 25, 1861, which I am sure will be enjoyed by all lovers of historical events. Very few if any are living today who will remember, Friday, Sept. 25, 1861 when weeping mothers were bidding their sons good-bye, some for the last time; wives bidding their husbands good-bye, some never returning. Lovers also leaving for the battlefield; when at the tap of the drum, Capt. Rowan and his company of brave men marched away from Old Unity church, one mile from Caledonia, to meet the boys in blue on the battlefield, for four long years of war.

Friday, Sept. 25th, 1861, was a day that will long remain green in the history of Caledonia, as on the above date, Capt. Rowan and his company marched away from home and loved ones to meet the boys in blue. There are no names that shine brighter, and offer loftier examples of true patriotism than these illustrious sons of Caledonia, who were brave and gallant young men.

For thirty years it had been the custom to give an annual barbecue to the surviving members of this good old company. The originators of this annual reunion Capt. J. L. Egger, James C. Nelson, and J. H. Lance. These gallant old soldiers have all answered the last roll call, and are resting under the shade of the trees on the other shore.

At an early hour Friday morning the crowd began to gather, and by 10 o'clock there were two thousand people assembled to do honor to the old Caledonia Rifle Company. At 11 o'clock, the large high school building was filled until standing room was at a premium. The following are the dear old ladies that were at Unity Church the 25th of September, 1861, and heard Miss Annie Vaughn deliver the speech on presenting the lovely silk flag, which was published in the columns of the Examiner last September. These ladies had seats of honor on the rostrum: Mrs. J. L. Egger, Mrs. Lou Lawrence, Mrs. Lou Murphye, Mrs. Della Egger, Mrs. An-in the very highest terms of the Caledonia Riflemen, from the time they marched away from Unity Church, up until the present day. He gave a brief sketch of Co. D, 24th Mississippi Regiment, which was organized at Caledonia, Sept. 1861; and was ordered to Marion Station, where it became Co. D, of the 24th Regiment, and rendered valiant service all through the war. The following is a list of the company officers, five of whom were killed during the war. Capt. M. M. Rowan, First Lieut. A. J. Egger, Second Lieut. J. R. Dale, Third Lieut. G. W. Ussery; 1st. Sergt. Hugh Honnel; 2nd. Sergt. J. L. Egger, 3d Sergt. Wm. Donald, 4th. Sergt. John Webb, 5th Sergt. J. M. Ussery. Color Sergt. W. B. Honnell. First Corporal, C. A. Lindley, 2d. Corp. R. H. Dowdle, 3d Corp. M. T. Gallagher, 4th Corp. William Thomas, 5th Corp. J. A. Fulenwider.

There were a hundred and fifteen in this company that left old Unity Church on this beautiful September morning, and ~~sixty~~ <sup>three</sup> of that number went down on the battlefield in death. The flag was shot down on the battlefield at Franklin, Tennessee, and was at once recovered by the brave captain, J. L. Egger in a perfect hail of bullets. Telling the boys in blue ("Damn you, shoot") Mr. D. B. Andrews lost his right arm in the battle of Murfreesboro, Tenn., on the 30th of November. 1862.

At the roll call, only six members of the original Caledonia Rifle Company were living, who had seen service through the four years of the Civil War; five of the number being present had seats of honor on the rostrum, under the old flag that they all loved so dearly.

At 11 o'clock when the flag was brought in by Hon. Ott M. Lawrence, and unfurled to the soft September breezes, these five brave old soldiers sent up the old Rebel yell, which was taken up by all in the house. Mrs. Annie Parham was then introduced by the writer. Dr. Jamison, which was the signal for an outburst of applause. Despite the passage of many milestones, Mrs. Parham keeps her health, whose freshness of youth might envy, and is one of the most interesting survivors of the old regime, whose reminiscences, both grave and gay, should be preserved as valuable records of a noted past.

After reading her speech, standing under the old flag which she had made and presented to the old Caledonia Rifles fifty-four years ago, the Hon. Ben F. Malloy, of Sulligent, Alabama, was introduced, and made a very eloquent and appropriate reply to the speech delivered by Mrs. Parham. He is, where he, with 500 other Southern soldiers, spent the winter. He remained in prison until the first of April, 1863. This gallant old soldier is living within one mile of Caledonia, enjoying the best of health. Mr. J. M. Dodson, who is still living, and is one of our neighbors, was taken prisoner at Look-out Mountain, and sent to prison, where he remained for 18 months.

On the 9th day of August this old company of Caledonia braves crossed the Cumberland mountains, and from there went to Perryville, to take part in the battle of Chickamauga. With the close of the four years of war, brought woeful and bitter days to our people, but year by year and day by day, the sun has been shining upon the many battlefields. The gentle stars have looked down upon them through long summer nights; and in winter the snow has fallen lightly on the fields of battle; and the summer dew has softly blessed the sod where many a crushed body lay.

And thus we find that after all these have swiftly, and with noiseless touch passed away, we find only six of this company of brave men living, and only five able to attend this annual reunion.

The most lasting monument that we can erect to these heroes of the Southern chivalry is that these annual reunions be kept up by the sons and daughters of the Confederacy, to perpetuate the memory of the Confederate soldiers who bravely fought for their country.

Since the reunion of 1915, the surviving six members of this grand old Company have been entertained annually by Uncle Dee Andrews, at his home one mile West of Caledonia. But alas, with the passing of the years, some old familiar face was missing, as one by one these brave old Civil War veterans had been called home; and at last Uncle Dee was left alone. However, he still continued the 25 of September Reunion, but on January 18th, 1918, at the age of 86 years, Uncle Dee answered the last roll call, and all that now remains of Company D is the old flag, which Mrs. Maggie Garton is carefully keeping in fond memory of her father, Capt. J. L. Egger.

"These old soldiers are not dead, they have but passed Beyond the mists that link us here Into that land where there's no war."

Honoree At Party
At Gautier Home

A pretty event of Thursday afternoon of last week was a party at which Mrs. Hermes Gautier was hostess honoring her niece, Miss Agnes Vaughan who is soon to become the bride of Richard Sebastian of New York.

The setting for the hospitality was "The Old Place," the Gautier summer home at Gautier and it was given a festive air by a wealth of summer flowers.

Cream and cake were served.

The guest list was confined to close relatives including the aunts and sisters of the honoree.

Those present were Mesdames Julia Canty, James Gautier, Fannie Loughridge, Henry Gautier, Eve Pelham, George Hague, L. C. Winterton, and Mrs. Joe Lipscomb (Jackson, Miss.) and Misses Mina O'Donohoe and Cecile Saucier.

LIPSCOMB-VAUGHAN

Miss Emily Vaughan of Pascagoula and Jackson and Mr. Joseph DuBois Lipscomb of Jackson were quietly married Sunday afternoon, September 6, at 3 o'clock by the Reverend W. S. Shipman at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Gordon Cooper, in Lambert. The Reverend Mr. Shipman, a retired Methodist minister, is a close friend of the Lipscomb family. The single ring ceremony was used. Only relatives and a few friends were present.

The nuptial music was rendered by Mrs. E. T. Tomlinson, pianist, of Clarksdale, and by Mrs. Cooper, vocalist. Mrs. Tomlinson is a sister of the groom.

The bridal couple were unattended.

The bride chose for her wedding a suit of black angel crepe with fitted jacket and trimmed with white grosgrain ribbon. She wore black accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

Mrs. Lipscomb is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Turner Vaughn of Pascagoula and Gautier. She is a graduate of Pascagoula High School and attended M. S. C. W. For the past two years she has been employed in the home office of the Lamar Life Insurance Company in Jackson.

Mr. Lipscomb is a son of the late Reverend and Mrs. L. M. Lipscomb of the North Mississippi conference. He is a graduate of the University of Mississippi and a member of the Kappa Sigma fraternity. He is now state manager of the Inter-Ocean Casualty Insurance Company, with headquarters in Jackson.

An informal reception was held for Mr. and Mrs. Lipscomb and wedding guests after the ceremony. Later in the afternoon they left on a honeymoon trip to Memphis and Chattanooga, Tennessee. They are now at home to their friends at the Edwards Hotel in Jackson.

Pictures of Mrs. Lipscomb together with accounts of the wedding appeared in the society sections of the Sunday, September 13, issue of the Jackson Clarion-Ledger and Jackson Daily News.

Loyal, Wisconsin January sixth, 1925

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph J. Vaughn
Ocean Springs, Miss.

Dear Ralph:--

We are wondering if you are very well known in and around Ocean Springs after so many years of residence there? The query arises because our Christmas greeting was returned, after making a visit to Lafayette, Indiana. We did not know that you had a definite street address that had to be placed upon the envelope in order that you might be sure of receiving your communications. We found that you had a street address by telephoning Lillie on New Year's Day, when the enclosed came back. So we will try it again and hope it this time your post office force will know what to do. Possibly the holiday time made it necessary to "break in" a new clerk who was not acquainted with the place.

Are you having a peculiar spell of weather down there? We certainly are. After the freak summer we are having just as freakish a winter. December was cold and stormy -- the stormiest in many years, they say -- and certainly much more so than last year. We did not have any below zero weather a year until the very last day of the year and did not have much snow until then. Below zero was frequent last month, and as for below as 28 and 30. And the cold began coming the first week and has been coming ever since. For two weeks we have been unable to make our trips via automobile. But there is one road where they are still in use and of course they run around town with them. It is supposed to be beneficial to a car to run it in zero temperatures and it certainly is no fun to run a car in deep snow. For several days now we have had little, if any, sunshine and the air is damp and raw. There is so much moisture that on Sunday morning everything was hanging in beautiful lacy hangings. No is predicted which would not make matters better. I presume we have about a month or twelve weeks of bad roads for things get drifted full several times a week in this part of the world. One of our folks let us take a horse and another a cutter and so we have means of locomotion.

Well, the Christmas time is in the past and once more is coming. It is before we are ready and then rushes by so as to be with us a very little while. We had planned to go over to the farm to eat turkey with the folks but it was impossible to get thru to Spencer and we would have had to go by that route we went. So we had to spend the day at home. Donald had been home three or four days from college and so we managed to have a pretty good time. Contrary to the usual custom we had our Christmas exercises on Christmas evening. It was below zero and this kept us from having a crowd but everything went off nicely. The people were very kind to us this year, their aggregate gifts

Pascagoula Public Library
Local History & Genealogy Dept.
Vaughn Family

aggregating something like seventy dollars. Some of the gifts were very great surprises.

There is quite a bit of anxiety up in this part of the nation over small-pox for it is breaking out in all parts of the state. It is in Marshfield and the scarlet fever in Granton. There is a vaccination agitation and quite a few are undergoing that experience. Donald had to be or they would not permit his return to Lawrence. He is just about in the worst of his experience now, we should judge when he last wrote he was suffering considerably, as were a good many more of the student body. I presume it is only a question of time when such a decree will be published here.

Have you become a radio fan? There are several good sets in the village and it is keeping not a few of the people home at night so that they may hear the news etc. We have the privilege of listening in at some of the places and have heard from all parts of the land. I heard President Coolidge on the eve of election when he spoke to the nation from his office. We get very good results from Galveston, Fort Worth and Dallas, Texas. It is certainly a wonderful thing and the wonder grows on one. I certainly would have one were it not that other things were needed so much worse. It is a pretty one-sided game as yet and I suppose sending station will never be very common for they cost too much and are under such close government supervision.

We are sorry that farming operations in your section were so unremunerative this season. The corn crop was not good up here but other things were and so our farmers can get along. It was too cold and wet for the corn to mature. As a consequence, stock cannot be fattened as they should be before marketing them and so the profits are lessened there. As I understand it, your nut crop was practically ruined. Certain it is that in the nuts that one gets at the store we do not see much. So it is nice that you can find work to do with your hammer and saw and fortunate that you can turn your attention to this other branch of work in which you have a bit of experience. There is not much opportunity for carpenters here altho there are four or five in the village who keep fairly busy. Last season was not much for building. We hope that you are both feeling well. Dan and Dan have a touch of the "grippe" which is quite prevalent all thru the state. John had it a few days ago. We are fairly well; I think Nellie had the thing mentioned above a week or two ago. Well, I am getting to the bottom of the sheet and have not time to fill another and so will ring off, once more wishing you a "happy new year" and reserving the "merry Christmas" until a later date. Take an evening off and write us. Our druggist has been in your vicinity. The world is not so big, after all. Perhaps Nellie has been writing to Maggie; I must inquire. We hope this letter will reach you.

Chapter V

Yankee Mayor

During the warm summer and fall days of 1892, as talk of local politics ranked high in general conversation around the Paragon Saloon, E. M. Westbrook's barber shop, and the Post Office at Washington and DeSoto, interest in Ocean Springs was also rising in the national elections.

Former President Grover Cleveland was making his bid for re-election after being defeated by Benjamin Harrison in 1888. Following more than three years under Harrison, many Mississippians, like their counterparts throughout the nation, were ready for a return to Cleveland's strict policies and promised reforms.

"Hurrah for Cleveland," said a June 1892 issue of The Biloxi Herald, which tells of the former president's nomination at the Democratic Convention in Chicago on the first ballot. "He's not exactly our first choice," the editor added almost as an afterthought.

But in November, Cleveland and his running mate, former Illinois Congressman Adlai Stevenson, won handily over Harrison and his vice presidential candidate, Whitelaw Reid.

In Ocean Springs that summer the baseball clubs were playing every Sunday on the green just east of the depot and the enthusiasm the games generated almost overshadowed Cleveland's victory in Chicago. However, several of the politically interested men in the community, most of those who were thinking about posts in the local government, decided to organize and push for the Democratic candidates.

According to the July 21 Herald, "The Democrats held a monster mass meeting last night." A Cleveland-Stevenson Club was organized. Hiram F. Russell, real estate man, pecan propagator and man of many talents, presided as temporary chairman, and the popular F. M. Weed was elected president of the organization. Vice-presidents were R. A. VanCleave, G. W. Davis, Capt. G. H. Tardy, and J. D. Minor. E. W. Illing and Dr. M. C. Vaughan, the town's dentist, were named secretaries; Russell succeeded to the treasurer's post and T. P. Franco was elected grand marshal. Other active members were J. D. Clark, E. M. Westbrook, B. F. Joachim and A. V. Rosambeau.

The political speeches were tinged with support of Cleveland's emphasis on a sound national currency. Comments were made about the latest events of the Pittsburgh Steel strike. Some 15,000 workers had walked out in mid-July and Pennsylvania Governor Robert Emory Pattison had sent the state troops to halt the violence at the Homestead Carnegie Iron Works.

C. W. Crozier, who had just started a new weekly newspaper, The Ocean Springs Signal, stayed in the background at the meeting, listening intently to the conversation of the speakers and taking a few notes.

Said to be an experienced journalist, Crozier had a short-lived career in the town. By the time the general election came near, The Biloxi Herald reported that the Signal's editor suddenly had departed for "parts unknown between two suns." An auction of the newspaper was scheduled for November 10, according to the newspaper article.

The true story of Crozier's departure was never made public until almost 60 years later when Capt. Ellis Handy wrote an historical column for the Jackson County Times, a weekly paper, and interviewed some of the oldtimers.

The townspeople did not like Crozier, Handy quoted the long-time residents as saying. His articles were biased and biting, especially against the city government. Crozier had come to town in July 1892. By September, he and his partner, F. L. Drinkwater, had dissolved their association and he was running the newspaper alone.

According to Capt. Handy's 1949 column, "some citizens met one night to decide on a remedy." An appointment was made for a meeting with Crozier at the Knights of Pythias Hall on Washington Avenue.

VanCleave, Weed and J. J. Garrard went to the hall, but Crozier could not be found. Probably, sensing his fate, he had left the night before and never returned again to Ocean Springs.

Drinkwater stepped in once Crozier left and started a new newspaper, The Ocean Springs Leader. Town news and advertisements were published faithfully each week, but this was not enough to keep the publication alive. The September 22, 1893, issue of The Pascagoula Democrat Star announced its rival publication had "breathed its last."

"It has been on the ragged edge for many months, merely existing, but after its issue of the 9th inst., the paper was no longer The Leader. The proprietor left and the office closed." The equipment and fixtures were sold at auction the next week.

Although Ocean Springs was left without a newspaper, the enthusiasm of the Democratic group did not wane. Once Cleveland and Stevenson were elected in November, the men turned from the national scene to the local situation.

In his time, each member of the club was destined to have some part in the government of Ocean Springs. President of the Democratic Club F. M. Weed especially continued in his role as a dynamic leader, vitally interested in the little town he had adopted as his home.

PARTNERS IN PROSPERITY

Rosambeau served as town clerk in the early years of Ocean Springs' government. He was elected ward four alderman in 1899-1900, 1901-1903 and 1903-1904. He replaced Samuel P. Starks as marshal in 1905-1906 and continued in that position until 1910, two years before his death at age 62.

In 1917, the wood frame Rosambeau home was ripped by fire caused by an oil stove explosion. Only Margie was at home when the blaze was ignited. She managed to rush out of the fiery residence unharmed.

The volunteer fire company responded to the alarm and youngsters from nearby St. Alphonsus School scurried to help the Rosambeaus save their belongings.

Lacking the apparatus needed to extinguish the quick-moving flames, the home and store was reduced to a gutted shell. Augustus Von Rosambeau's desk and his family coat of arms were saved. But family pictures, mementoes, clothing and furnishings were gone.

For the next year, the family lived at 410 Jackson Avenue, a home they owned and usually rented. In 1918, they moved back to their rebuilt home on the corner of the street.

The new house had a huge living room and dining room, three bedrooms and a breezeway leading to the kitchen on the ground floor. Two bedrooms and a bath were on the second story.

Although the store had been in the front of the house originally before the structure burned, in the new building, the store was added to the rear.

Mary Ann Rosambeau continued to conduct her business there until she died in 1937.

The year 1892 brought many achievements for 41-year old Pabst. In January, he was elected chancellor commander of Lodge 66 Knights of Pythias. Noted as other 1892 officers were George A. VanCleave, vice chancellor; Dr. M. C. Vaughan, prelate; W. R. Simmons, keeper of the records and seal; H. F. Russell, chancellor of exchequer; J. D. Minor, chancellor of finance; George Friar, master at arms; and F. M. Weed, assistant director grand chancellor.

During his first years at Ocean Springs Pabst did odd jobs and worked as a carpenter. A college graduate and the son of a physician in his homeland, Pabst had been an apprentice to a glass blower before he emigrated. But glass blowing was not a flourishing trade in the south.

Origin of Names

GAUTIER: Gauthier - Waltier - Walter (French Norman)

From the German: Walthari means "army commander" (Waltan = to rule;
heri = army, troops.)

This adds some humor to a common family name - Walter Gautier - which means literally "Walter Walter".

VAUGHAN: Vaughn (Welsh) from Faughn - Fawn (Sulurist).
It means "little man".

Famous Gautiers and Vaughans:

Theophile Gautier was a poet, philosopher. The famous ballet
"Giselle" was created by Adolphe Adam for Theophile's mistress who was a ballerina.

Henry Vaughan - An English metaphysical poet known as the Sulurist poet.

Thomas Vaughan - also an English poet.

Fernandez Gautier, born at sea on the way to the New World from France; reared in New Orleans; came to Mississippi soon after the Civil War; engaged in lumber business. Traditional belief of the family is that his wife, Theresa Fayard, was of Indian ancestry.

Walter Gautier continued the lumber business; built the home that was owned by Josephine Gautier; presently owned by Dr. David and Aimee Gautier Dugger; was an outstanding man of the community and county; enjoyed boating.

Very little is known about the family of P. T. Vaughan. His mother was Pauline Smith of Virginia; his father was a doctor in Summerfield, Alabama.

Celeste Gautier Vaughan was born and lived her entire life in the town named for her family, Gautier, Mississippi. She met P. T. Vaughan when he came to Gautier from Summerfield (Selma), Alabama. They were married on September 4th (1905?), the date of her parent's wedding anniversary.

The P. T. Vaughans' first home was located across the street from the Walter Gautier home (or what we know as Josie's Singing River Pottery) and is now owned by Harriet Gautier Portis. The first three Vaughan children were born there, and then the young family moved to the beach front "railroad" house where the rest of the children were born and grew up. This home was the scene of occasional weekend house parties, tennis matches, and swimming parties that were enjoyed by family, friends, and relatives alike. They lived there until 1948 when Celeste and P. T. moved to their new home on this site, 2000 Vaughndale Drive.

Celeste was a lovely, outgoing person who enjoyed nothing more than visiting relatives and friends. At about three years of age, she had a severe case of scarlet fever and was left with a hearing impairment. Her favorite food was grits, and it was served almost daily at supper time. She was a faithful and devout member of the Catholic Church.

P. T. was a true Southern gentleman; courteous, a sportsman, and the possessor of a dry wit! He was a graduate of Auburn University and was on the train headed for New Orleans to look for work, when he bought a Mobile newspaper and saw a job advertisement for an assistant to the superintendent of the L & N Creosote Works in Gautier, Ms. Although he had never heard of Gautier, he got off the train there, applied for the job, got it and became the assistant to Colonel Morton. When Colonel Morton retired, P. T. was appointed Superintendent and remained in that position until he retired in approximately 1948. He did not enjoy "company" as much as Celeste did, hence the home he built had many doors that provided a fast exit when he wished to avoid the latest batch of visitors. After his death in 1951, Dolores and Billy Vaughan made their home with Celeste. Sometime in the late sixties she made her last home with Emily and Heberden Shepard where she was lovingly cared for until her death in 1978. She and P. T. are buried in the Gautier Cemetery.

Emily Vaughan Lipscomb Shepard was born in Gautier, MS, but raised her family in Jackson, MS. Our father, Joe Lipscomb, passed away on January 17, 1956. Mother was left with 3 children to raise alone. After the children were grown and had left home, she moved back to Gautier in order to take care of her mother, Celeste Vaughan. Emily married Heberden Shepard, a childhood sweetheart, in 1970, and they continued to care for Celeste until her death in 1978. Heberden passed away in August of 1995, and several months later, Mother entered an Alzheimer's Unit in Mobile, AL. She later was moved to Ocean Springs Nursing Center to be near her daughter. Mother passed away peacefully on April 26, 2005 at the age of 97 ½. She was a talented pianist, an excellent seamstress, and a wonderful cook. One of our favorite dishes when growing up was "SpoonBread" which she would make almost every Sunday. She loved working in her yard and tending to her flowers. She was a sweet, caring lady with a beautiful smile that would light up a room. She was a wonderful mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother, and was dearly loved by so many friends and relatives. She was a devout Catholic and a faithful member of St. Mary's Catholic Church.

Austin and Frances " Fannie " Shipman thought a Vaughan family reunion would be wonderful to get not only the adult brothers and sisters together, but to have the cousins meet and get to know each other. I'm not sure of the date it started, but Joe Jr. was six weeks old for the first one we attended, and he is now 33 years old. So, it was a long time ago. It is wonderful to start this up again. I'm sure Mom and Daddy are with us in spirit and enjoying it along with us all--amazed at how we have grown.

Joe Gunnels, Sr. died in a plane crash on Sept. 3, 2000. He loved flying and loved his T-6 warbird. Flying for United was his job, but the T-6 was "fun." He always said he wanted to go in a plane doing what he loved--It was just too soon for those of us who loved him.

Dolores was the first daughter of Sam and Leona Cropp Byrd. She grew up in the Pascagoula area taking lessons in ballet, twirling, expression, and the social graces. She was a majorette and queen of the Hi Jinx Club before attending Belhaven College. She married Billy, the love of her life, and joined the Vaughan family and the Catholic Church whole heartedly. She was adored by her children, and she and Daddy always made life fun. It was a lot of work but she always looked forward to the family reunions which stopped after her death on 01/22/85, until now. She is with us in spirit, watching from God's porch, finally able to just sit and relax with a mint julep.

Billy was the long-awaited first son. He inherited his father's wit and Maw-Maw Vaughan's green thumb. He worked hard and graduated summa cum laude from Mississippi State with a degree in Landscape Architecture. He went on to operate a very successful business in Florida. From childhood trips with Maw-Maw and Paw-Paw Byrd he developed a love for travel, later visiting New York, the East Coast, Mexico, and out West. He had to cancel his trip to Hawaii when he became ill and passed away 1/13/91. He will live forever in our hearts and memories.

Jimmy, the baby of our family, was gifted with creativity. An avid musician, he spent years in the band and loved all kinds of music. Later he worked as a DJ and made recordings of his own compositions. He especially enjoyed creating the musical scores for the Mardi Gras balls. He loved to travel and was a talented photographer, artist and ceramist. He enjoyed living in New Orleans while getting his associates degree in drafting. Jimmy passed away 6/12/96 while being serenaded by a harp. Life was his party. We miss him and his artistic and musical creations.

car-truck impact

Funeral services were conducted Saturday for three local men and an Alabaman killed Thursday in a car-truck collision on Highway 90.

Three of the victims — Ellis Vaughn, 22, Willie James McCreary, 24, both of Pascagoula, and Paul Johnson, 27, Moss Point — were given final rites at Gulf Funeral Home Chapel in Pascagoula.

At about the same time in Flomaton, Ala., burial services were conducted for the fourth victim, 40-year-old Walter Woodrow Raines.

The four died instantly about 8 p.m. Thursday, police said, when a car occupied by the local men slammed into a transport truck driven by Raines.

Raines was employed by a Mobile beverage company and was en route to Mobile from New Orleans with a load of beer when the accident occurred at 90 and Chico Road.

County patrolman O. F. Thornton said the car, driven by Johnson, was traveling toward Pascagoula and apparently blew its left front tire, ran out of control and slid sideways into the path of the truck.

The impact sliced the car into three parts, pinning the four men between the rear section of the car and the cab of the truck.

Two gas tanks attached to the truck exploded, Thornton said. He said the bodies were engulfed in flames and burned beyond recognition.

Traffic on the highway was halted for nearly four hours while workmen cleared the wreckage.

Services for Vaughn, McCreary and Johnson were conducted by the Rev. J. D. Williams.

Interment for the three was in Scranton Cemetery.

Vaughn is survived by his wife, Clara Mae Vaughn; his parents the Ellis Vaughns, Kreole; five brothers and four sisters.

Survivors of Johnson include his wife, Evelyn Johnson; two sons, Paul Lorenzo and Oliver Johnson and two daughters, Linda Marie and Angela Theodore Johnson, all of Moss Point.

McCreary is survived by five brothers, three sisters and his parents, all of Pascagoula.

Raines, a veteran of World War II, is survived by his wife, six daughters and a son, all of Flomaton, and his parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Walter Herbert.

His body was taken to Alabama by Jackson County Mortuary of Century, Fla.

Inquests on the deaths were conducted shortly after the collision by Beat Three JP John Henley.

Henley said a jury returned "accidental" verdicts on all four.

And In Memory of My Son

GILBERT NALLEY VAUGHAN

My Dearest Husband Clyde

You would be eighty-two this month, I wish you could be here.

You know that I miss you dearly, and will more and more as each year passes. The special times we shared, linger on in my mind and heart. When I first met you on a sunny day in Wade, Mississippi, you were a tall, handsome, country boy, with coal black hair, and I was a little city girl from East Prairie, Missouri, who was trying her hand at baseball, only to find out that this was the luckiest day of my life, when you started playing ball with my brothers and me. I had the best catch of all that day, you! You were such a kind, sweet, gentle man, who cherished his children, grand-children, great-grandchildren, brothers, sister and family. The years passed by and we had nine beautiful children together. . . .

Our Oldest Son Gilbert

Gilbert Nalley Vaughan, a veteran of the Vietnam War, served 20 years in the Navy, was 57 years old when we lost him. He built our beautiful home along with one for his sister and brother too! He could turn a piece of wood into something beautiful. I miss you so very much, my sweet brown-eyed son. My precious oldest son, I will love you till the end of time, Mama.

The Golden Gated Doors of Heaven opened the day God called Daddy home. At the shore of the River Jordan, Daddy took your hand, with Jesus at your side, never to part again.

Clyde, your loving laughter and all the special memories we shared are remembered today, your birthday. May the sweet voices of the angels sing "Happy Birthday" in our place for you, my sweetheart. Your memory is with me always. The memories you left are with us and will always remain. You loved us all enough to carry that love from generation to generation and beyond, so that they also would know what makes a strong willed and loved family. The cycle will be broken for only a short while.

We will be together again in Heaven one day.

I love you and miss you, my darling husband. . .

Former Resident Buried Here

Milton C. Vaughn, aged 49, a former resident of Ocean Springs, died in Jackson Monday. The body was brought to this city Tuesday afternoon for burial in Evergreen Cemetery in the Vaughn family lot. Milton Vaughn lived in Ocean Springs in his young manhood. Later he moved to Biloxi and was Cashier of the Harrison County Bank. From there he went to New Orleans. ## Man's Friend.

The funeral of Harold Bannister, an outliner of Leyland, was followed by his favorite dog. It entered the church with the mourners, and sitting by the bier, occasionally sniffed at the coffin. At the graveside the dog sat still while the coffin was being lowered and then put its paws on the edge of the grave and took a farewell view of its late master.—London Express.

This cabinet, to find place. The story as related by one in close touch with administration circles is that at a recent meeting of the cabinet the President expressed the opinion that colored Republicans so far had not been given sufficient recognition and stated that he proposes to appoint a number to office. He instructed the members of his cabinet to find suitable places and to advise him in order that he might carry out his plan.

Effect of Laughter on Health.

Most happy is the effect of laughter on the circulation. A good laugh is virtually a series of spasmodic expirations. These forcible chest movements cause a partial closing of the glottis which increases the pressure within the thorax and so impedes the entry of blood from the veins into the heart. This effect is discerned in the turgidity of the head and neck. In the second place the exceptionally deep inspirations tend to expand the lungs with air and to draw off the blood from the veins of the heart.

The Railroads are a Barometer of Business

There is no better standard by which to judge business conditions and forecast the future than the volume of traffic being carried by the railroads. Because of the vital interdependence of the railroads and general business enterprises, prosperity or the lack of it, affects both of them alike.

Just now the histories of the nation are working almost in unison, and the farms have produced bounteous crops. The railroads are successfully handling an unprecedented amount of business, and the volume is steadily growing. These conditions not only denote a present healthy state of business activity, but foretell a continuation of our national prosperity.

The L. & N. is increasing its facilities to take care of increased traffic demands in order that general business may move unhampered. The L. & N. has appropriated during the past year, over $80,000,000 to improve its service. It recently purchased over fifty thousand tons of new rails costing over $2,100,000. Consider these and other facts before you give approval to the destructive regulative measures now being proposed. Help to keep the barometer of business from falling.

C. F. Raley of 704 12th Street tried to get on top of a barbecue pit Monday afternoon in his back yard by climbing through the chimney.

He could not make it, Joey's head stuck in the chimney and he could not retreat.

Fire chief Albert N. Pether used a hammer to knock some brick loose and Joey was freed within a few minutes.

Firemen were also called Monday morning to put out a trash fire at Animal Trap company.

DDD phones here Sunday

Goulans can dial

in five more days

Pascagoula telephones will be plugged in to the DDD system Sunday.

Customers in Pascagoula will thereafter be able to dial most of their own long distance calls, according to John Fox, manager of Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company in Pascagoula.

Fox listed three steps in dialing a long distance call:

"1. Dial one — This connects you to the Direct Distance Dialing equipment.

"2. Dial the area code — This connects you to the state or area that you are calling (but not required on calls within Mississippi).

"3. Dial the telephone number — Two letters and five numerals or seven numerals.

"Should an operator come in on the line and say, 'Your number please,' give the number of the telephone you are using."

Fox said that should one get a wrong number, call the operator and give her the name of the city reached.

This will assure you of not being charged for the call. Fox

Masonic visit was Saturday

A news article concerning the expected visit of a Masonic official to Pascagoula appeared by error in Monday's Chronicle two days after the visit.

Homegoing Celebration of Bertis Marie Woldon- Vaughn

Bertis Marie was born in Pascagoula, Miss., August 5, 1919. She entered eternal rest one week after her 84th birthday celebration on Aug. 12, 2003 in the home of her beloved brother, Carlos Beaudreau, in Washington, D.C.

Bertis was the second of seven children born to the late John Thomas Beaudreau and Eulalie Gertrude Beaudreau.

She was preceded in death by two sisters, Geneva V. Branson and Margaret JoAnn Hafner.

A devout Catholic, Bertis was baptized at St. Peter the Apostle Church, attended the Parish school, and was an active parishioner throughout her life.

In 1942, Bertis married and followed to Cambridge, Mass., her sweetheart, Robert Woldon, where she worked in retail sales and "supervised" the upbringing of her teenage sister, Melva. Following the war, she and "Bob" built a home on North Market St. where they resided until his passing in 1963. Bertis spent the years 1965 to 1980 in Los Angeles, Calif., helping her brother and caring for her mother.

She was wed to the late Milton E. Vaughn in 1968 and was a resident of Tulsa, Okla. until 1987, when she returned to Pascagoula and began the restoration of her grandmother's vintage home on Market St.

It was the joy of her life to trace her childhood footsteps along the path from her house to St. Peter's Church to attend Mass, and all of the Church and school-sponsored activities of the Parish. Bertis had a special devotion to St. Anthony (who always led her to her lost items), the Sacred Heart of Jesus and our Blessed Mother.

To the dismay of many who would offer her a ride, Bertis was an avid walker and would generally express her preference to "getting her exercise" while walking from Market St. downtown to the Bank, the Singing River Hospital, Wayne Lee's or Wal-Mart. She was particularly excited when Walgreen's opened its doors on U.S.

Although she didn't give birth to her nine nieces (Sharon, Roxann, Yvette, "Dee," Lynette, Henrietta, Eulalia, Michelle, and Carla Marie) or three nephews (Leslie, Darryl, and Charles), she was "Nanie" to all, and "Other Mother" to several of them, with all of the joys and sorrows of parenthood. She leaves to cherish her memory one brother, Carlos Beaudreau of Washington, D.C.; three sisters, Alma (Leonard) Hutchinson of Sarasota, Fla.; Melva R. Gaitwood of Washington, D.C.; and Blanche (Pete) Renfroe of Chicago, Ill.; one stepdaughter, Martha McLeod of Kansas City, Mo.; and one stepson, Brad Vaughn of Seaside, Calif.; great-nieces, great-nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

The remains will lie in state from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. at St. Peter Catholic Church, where funeral Mass will begin promptly at 11 a.m. with Father Willie Norvel, SS, officiating.

Interment will be in St. Peter Cemetery, Pascagoula.

Rene' Wrigley Freeman

At 56 years young, Rene' Wrigley Freeman passed away suddenly and unexpectedly in Utica, NY on Wednesday, December 22, 2010 at 6:30 in the evening.

She is survived by her loving husband, Scott Freeman of Clinton, NY, her 3 children, Trinity Vaughan Bains and her husband Jimmy, of Ocean Springs, MS, Michelle Vaughan Haag and her husband Douglas of Tampa, FL, and Hal G. Vaughan, III, of Gautier, MS; her parents Leon and Inez Wrigley of Hurley, MS and Wanda Gaines, of Tampa, FL; her other parents (in-laws), Howard and Renee Freeman ("Mom" and "Pop") of Hillsborough, NJ, Hal Vaughan Sr. (Paw-Paw Hal) of Gautier, MS, her brother Randy Wrigley and his wife Robbie, of Ocean Springs, MS, five adored grandchildren, Emmy and Gabby Bains, Cameron, Benjamin, and Piper Haag, and her two grand-doggies, Hanna and Hailey, her "sister" and best friend in the world, Paula Lockard (Te-Ta) of Vancleave, MS, her very special nieces, Amy Hodges, Kathryn Kihyet Jones, Lauren Kihyet Ruckdeschel, Jaklyn Wrigley, Nikki Wrigley, and nephews, Elias Kihyet, Lucas Wrigley, Casey Vaughan, and Corey Vaughan, and so many more family, friends and loved ones.

Rene' or Ne'Ne', as so many knew her by, was born in Illinois on October 6, 1954. But her real home was the MS Gulf Coast for more than 40 years. After Hurricane Katrina, she and her husband, Scott, moved from Biloxi, MS to live in Lake Charles, LA, where they lived for a little more than 4 years. They recently moved to Clinton, NY, where they lived for the past 6 months, until she went to heaven.

She loved spending time on the water, fishing, or at the beach. It was only appropriate that she married the man who made her so content for the past 11 years, on the beach. With such a contagious and affectionate personality, she befriended any and every person she ever met, even if they were a complete stranger. Her outgoing and energetic personality was infectious. And she ALWAYS saw the heart of a person rather than their outer shell. Rene' made everyone of us laugh. She had a work ethic to be admired and organizational skills that most of us could only hope to have a fraction of. She believed in loving you unconditionally, to her very core.

The world is truly missing an angel, who was allowed to walk on Earth for such a very short time. We were all so lucky to have met her. God sent her to us, to touch us in one way or another. And she made us ALL better people, just by knowing her. Thank you for being the perfect wife, mother, daughter, sister and friend to us all. Until we meet again, we will remember your laugh, your smile, your encouraging words, and prayers. And we will speak to you always, through our thoughts, our words, our prayers and in our hearts. We will ALWAYS LOVE YOU!

~Michelle Vaughan Haag~
